UPCOMING: September 8 The Nativity of the Most Holy Theotokos was the fruit of the prayer of her pious parents, Sts. Joachim and Anna. On Her father's side, she was of the royal line of David. Her mother, Anna, was also of David's lineage. God, in His Wisdom, showed the barrenness of human nature before the coming of Christ by leaving Joachim and Anna childless until they were very old. One feast day they went to the Temple to present their offerings, but someone turned to them and said "You are not allowed to offer with us because you have no child." These words cut them to the ear. Returning home, St. Joachim went up to the desert to pray alone and St. Anna, at home, was shedding abundant tears and fervently imploring Heaven. They both promised God that the child He would give them they would dedicate to Him. God, who is rich in mercy and full of compassion, heard their entreaties and sent to Anna the Archangel Gabriel, who announced that she would conceive in her old age and bear a child, who would be the praise of the whole earth. When nine months had passed, Anna gave birth to the Holy Theotokos who, at the age of three, was dedicated to the Temple by her Holy Parents, which is commemorated on Nov 21 September 9th – SS. And Venerable Joachim and Anna. Tradition holds that these Saints were the parents of the Theotokos although nothing is known of them except that they lived in Galilee and later in Jerusalem, where their traditional tomb was rediscovered in A.D. 1889. — St. Severianus, Martyr, was an Armenian Soldier-Saint, tortured to death under the power of Licinius A.D. 332.

Ways to help our Church. Church is more than a building. It is primarily the people of God, the Mystical Body of Christ. For Christ's Church to be fully alive and vibrant, it takes our participation in prayer and liturgical services, and also requires many helpers to maintain and enhance our physical presence. Our Eparchial Handbook says that a parishioner "is willing to support the growth of the Church by sharing his/her Time, Talent, and Treasure (financial support). (P.H.)#437-g) Please look at the parish ministries in the bulletin inserts or as a handout in the narthex and ask the Lord if He is calling you to serve in any of them.

Please see Fr. Milan who would be happy to talk to you about it!
