Special Priests' Medical Insurance Collection - Eparchial Factoid

Your generous response to last year's medical insurance collection raised just over $40,125, enough to pay our medical premium for one month with about $6,600 remaining to help pay part of another month's premium. We are very grateful for your thoughtful and generous contribution last year. Currently, our monthly premium averages $33,500 for which we collect from the parishes only $18,782. The Eparchy must find the difference of $14,718 per month! This is becoming more and more difficult for the Eparchy to pay each month without having a direct impact on eparchial programs and other operational needs. Your generosity this year will make a tremendous difference! Thank you for your generosity and love for your priests and your Eparchy. Your sacrifice is deeply appreciated.
