A reminder from last Sunday: We have an obligation before God to worship him every Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation because failing to do so results in gradual, yet steady death of the soul. Those of you who have not attended Divine Liturgy via streaming nor mailed in a tithe are suffering the consequences in subtle or larger ways either spiritually, materially, or both. Those of you who have been streaming each Sunday and holy day (and even more often when able) having been reaping much benefit. When I see the faces of those of you who have attended the parking lot services in May and received the Eucharist outside our front door, your faces were radiantly happy! Whether or not a bishop gives you, as a healthy person, an official dispensation of your obligation, you have an obligation before God to keep holy the Lord's Day. Since June 1, our bishop has officially ended the temporary dispensation (due to the virus) from an obligation to attend the Divine Liturgy or other liturgical services at a Catholic Church. As such, if you are elderly and/or at-risk with other health issues, you may stay home but need ("strongly encouraged") to pray with the Scriptures, Typika, or live stream a Divine Liturgy so that you nourish your soul. But if you are sick at any age, you need to stay home for your benefit and the safety of the rest of St. Anne's.

At St. Anne's, we have begun to have a hybrid system on Sundays and feast days of indoor attendance with a maximum of 47 people coupled with parking lot attendees who can receive the Eucharist after the Divine Liturgy. We have much to pray for in our own lives, the Church, and especially the world. So do come and join us indoors or outdoors. Find the joy that others have discovered who have been coming here.
